

Alternative offers: A current, complete instrument with all items required for use, except calibration standards, shall be offered/provided. If an alternative/replacement item is offered, descriptive literature (commercial catalogs, specification sheets, etc.) shall be submitted with the quote, for review and evaluation by the cognizant engineer who will coordinate qualifying the instrument with the end user. If the instrument has not been purchased previously by the government and meets the evaluation process, the instrument shall be subjected to functional testing prior to final approval by the government.

Product Conformance: The products provided shall conform to the producer's own drawings, specifications, standards, and quality assurance practices. The government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance.

Installation and Demonstration: For laboratories in the United States only, if required by the end user, the contractor shall be responsible for installation and check-out of the equipment at the designated Air Force laboratory and demonstration that the equipment is ready for use. Installation and demonstration is projected to take one day. The cost for installation and demonstration shall be at no additional cost to the government

Operation and Maintenance Manuals: One copy of the commercial operation and maintenance manual(s), including calibration procedures and adjustments, as applicable, shall be shipped with the equipment. One additional copy of the operation and maintenance manual shall be shipped to the cognizant engineer at this address; FSC 6670, Engineer, WR-ALC/LEEG, 295 Byron Street, Robins AFB, GA 31098-1611.

Warranty: All supplied items shall carry a standard commercial warranty on parts and labor. Information on warranty duration and expiration date, conditions and point of contact shall be shipped with each unit. One additional copy of the warranty information shall be shipped to the cognizant engineer at this address; FSC 6670, Engineer, V/R-ALC/LEEG, 295 Byron Street, Robins AFB, GA 31098-1611.
